

HUNGERFORD TOWN COUNCIL
Councillor Co-option Policy
Adopted 7/5/2019 and reviewed 4/5/2020

1. Introduction

This policy sets out the procedure to ensure there is compliance with legislation and continuity of procedures in the co-option of members to Hungerford Town Council (HTC). The Co-option procedure is entirely managed by HTC and this policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

2. Co-option

The Co-option of a Town Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Council and no poll (by-election) has been called. A casual vacancy occurs when:

- A councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time;
- A councillor resigns;
- A councillor dies;
- A councillor becomes disqualified; or
- A councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of a council committee or subcommittee or to attend as a representative of the Council a meeting of an outside body.

HTC must notify the West Berks Council of a Casual Vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten electors write to the District Council stating that an election is requested.

If a by-election is called, a polling station will be set up by the District Council and the people of the parish will be asked to go to the polls to vote for candidates who will have put themselves forward by way of a nomination paper. HTC will pay the costs of the election. The people of the parish have fourteen days (not including weekends, bank holidays and other notable days), to claim the by-election, but the electoral officer will advise the clerk of the closing date.

If more than one candidate is then nominated a by-election takes place but if only one candidate is put forward, they are duly elected without a ballot.

If ten residents do not request a ballot within fourteen days of the vacancy notice being posted, as advised by the District Council, HTC is able to co-opt a volunteer.

3. Confirmation of Co-option

On receipt, of written confirmation, from the Electoral Services Office from the District Council, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of Co-option, the Town Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks on the Council notice boards and website
- Advise HTC that the Co-option Policy has been instigated

HTC is not obliged to fill any vacancy. Even if the Council invites applications for co-option, it is not obliged to select anyone from the candidates who apply.

However, it is not desirable that electors in a ward be left partially or full underrepresented for a significant length of time. Neither does it contribute to effective and efficient working of the Council if there are insufficient councillors to share the workload; equitably; to provide a broad cross-section of skills and interests; or the achieve meeting quorums without difficulty.

Councillors elected by co-option are full members of HTC however it should be noted to meet the criteria to use the General Power of Competence the Town Council will require two thirds of their councillors to be elected rather than co-opted when the proposal is made (at the annual meeting of the council after the ordinary election that normally takes place every four years) to continue to use the GPOC.

4. Eligibility of Candidates

HTC can consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- He/she is an elector for the parish; or
- has resided in the parish for the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land or other premises in the parish; or
- had his/her principal place of work in the parish; or
- has lived within three miles (direct) of the parish.

There are certain disqualifications for election, of which the main are (see 5. 80 of the Local Government Act 1972):

- holding a paid office under the local authority;
- bankruptcy;
- having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the five years preceding the election; and
- being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal practices.

Candidates found to be offering inducements of any kind will be disqualified.

5. Applications

Members may point out the vacancies and the process to any qualifying candidate(s). Although there is no Statutory Requirement to do so, candidates will be requested to:

- Submit information about themselves by submitting a resume including some background information about themselves and reasons for wanting to join the council.
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules (Appendix A).

Following receipt of applications, the next suitable council meeting will have an agenda item 'To receive written applications for the office of Town councillor and to Co-opt a candidate to fill the existing vacancy'.

Copies of the candidate's applications will be circulated to all Councillors by the Clerk at least 3 clear days prior to the meeting of the full Council, when the Co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and all Councillors as Strictly Private and Confidential.

Candidates will be sent a full agenda of the meeting at which they are to be considered for appointment, together with a copy of the Code of Conduct, Standing Orders and Financial Regulations of HTC. Candidates will also be informed that they will be invited to speak about their application at the meeting.

6. At the Co-option Meeting

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to Members, give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a Member of HTC. Where the Council wishes to discuss the merits of candidates and inevitably their personal attributes, this could be prejudicial, and the Council will resolve to exclude the members of the press and public (including the candidate). During this session any concerns over the application must be aired to the Council. If further information needs to be obtained to clarify any point then the question should be put to the candidate.

As soon as all candidates have finished giving their submissions, the council will proceed to a vote in public on the acceptability of each candidate utilising the ‘person specification’ criteria set out in Appendix B and any personal statements provided by candidates, with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the councillors in attendance and a vote being taken by paper ballot.

In order for a candidate to be elected to HTC, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a casting vote.

After the votes has been concluded, the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected and after signing their declaration of acceptance of office, may take their seat immediately.

The Clerk will notify Electoral Services of the new Councillor appointment. The successful candidate(s) must complete the ‘registration of interests’ within 28 days of being elected. The form should be handed to the Clerk for forwarding to the Monitoring Officer.

If insufficient candidates come forward for co-option, the process should continue, whereby the vacancies are again advertised.

Candidates should be aware that unless specified otherwise, all Council meetings are open to the press and public and what is said could be quoted in local press or on social media.

In the interests of transparency all councils are required to allow any member of the public to take photographs, film and audio-record the proceedings, and report on all public meetings.

Councillors should provide a contact number to be displayed on the town council’s website. Each councillor will be provided with a council email address.
